Regarding DASA/CSAB 2025

Greetings from DASA/CSAB 2025 Headquarters, NIT Rourkela!

Regarding PI reporting at the Admitting institute, which is set to start from 20th August 2025 onwards, we have received some questions from candidates. Based on those, here are some guidelines:

1. "Online Document Verification Certificate (ODFC)" is no longer issued by JoSAA/CSAB authority to the candidates obtained a seat through JoSAA/CSAB, so this document name can create confusion for the candidates if it is mentioned in the Admission guideline of your institute. What final certificate is issued in JoSAA Rounds is called "Provisional Seat Allotment Letter". One such real example is attached here.

2. But such a candidate can participate in CSAB special and get a new seat, in that case, this certificate has no value. Finally, after 20th August, what name list will be available in your PI Login, those will be final and please ask only such candidates for their Allotment Letter.

3. Regarding fees to be transferred by us (DASA/CSAB 2025 Headquarters) to your institute:

- Candidates participating in JoSAA/CSAB (if applicable for your institute): We will transfer an amount of Rs. 30,000 for candidates with the category tag SC/S/PwD, and Rs. 70,000 for Gen/Gen-EWS/OBC-NCL.

- Candidates participating in DASA (if applicable for your institute): We (DASA/CSAB 2025 Headquarters) will transfer an amount equivalent to 4,000 USD (for non-SAARC) OR 2,000 USD (for SAARC) OR Rs. 62,500/- (for CIWG) after confirmation of candidates' admission at your institute. However, candidates participating in both CSAB-Special and as DASA-CIWG, if they get a Gen/Gen-EWS/OBC-NCL seat in CSAB-Special, then the difference amount (Rs. 70,000-62,500=7,500) shall be collected at your end. Candidate-wise, such details will be furnished by us.

School of Engineering will invite candidates allocated a seat in JNU for the B. Tech. programme in Computer Science and Engineering and Electronics and Communication Engineering after the end of CSAB Special round counselling.

Please see the CSAB – Special round counselling 2025 schedule on the CSAB 2025 website.
